

Free Legal Aid Walk-In Clinics

At the Bartholomew County Public Library

Tuesday, March 28, 2023

3:00 pm – 4:00 pm: General Advice Clinic

Get FREE legal advice on civil legal matters, including:

Adoptions • advanced directives • family law (child support modification, custody, divorce, parenting time) • guardianships • landlord/tenant (evictions, habitability issues) • powers of attorney • protective orders • simple wills • small estates

* NO criminal law questions ****

4:00 pm – 5:00 pm: Eviction Clinic

Get FREE legal advice regarding an eviction, including:

The residential eviction process • Negotiating with your landlord • Legal defenses to an eviction
• Damages hearings & money judgments • Sealing of eviction records

How to receive FREE legal advice:

Walk-In Legal Clinic at the Bartholomew County Public Library

Lower-Level Reception Area

536 Fifth Street, Columbus, Indiana 47201

Call 812-378-0358 for more information

Can't attend these clinics? Visit www.legalaidpbi.org/services to find additional clinics and other ways to get free legal help.

For low-income residents of Bartholomew, Brown, Decatur, Jackson, Jennings, Johnson, Rush, and Shelby Counties

